Antioch Beats Grant, Presses Bulldogs for Confer'nce Leadership

Upsets McHenry Saturday; To End Season With Grayslake Here

The Antioch Sequoits arose to new heights in handing the Grant Bulldogs a humiliating defeat at Ingleside Friday night 72 to 54.

The game served notice to the Ingleside neighbors that should they win the Northwest Suburban Conference Championship tomorrow night by beating Wauconda, they still have last Friday night's game to remember.

Should Antioch beat Grayslake tomorrow and Grant lose, the Sequoits and Bulldogs will tie for the conference championship. Otherwise Antioch is certain of second place.

Friday night's loss was the second straight for the crippled Bulldogs, who lost again Saturday night to Zion.

Larry Leon's warriors shouted the battle cry at the very start and after grabbing the first quarter 14 to 12 held the upperhand all the way. They limited the Bulldogs to four field goals in the first half, claiming the half 30 to 23 and went on to lead 52 to 37 at the end of the third period.

It was only after Wayne Herbst fouled out in the fourth quarter that the Bulldogs took heart and started a rally but in making a full court press they let down their defense and the Sequoits took advantage of it for additional points.

It was a big night for Art Hanke who scored 29 points. He teamed with Jerry Huml and Herbst in taking complete command of the boards. Herbst and Behrens scored 13 points and Huml and Tom Gudgeon got eight each.

Huml did good work in limiting the high scoring Denny Hodge to two field goals while Herbst limited Pat Tierney to one goal. Tierney got his other two baskets while Herbst was on the sidelines.

Ronnie Madden was high man for Grant with 15 points.

McHenry Defeated, An Upset
The Sequoits staged an upset Saturday night here by winning from the McHenry Warriors 66-62.

Antioch started the game with the same machine-like precision they exhibited in the Grant game and (continued on page 7)

Eugene Rockow Saves Brother, Dale Rockow From Antioch Lake After Fall Through Ice

There no doubt is greater affection today between Eugene Rockow, 40, 1028 Main st., and his brother Norman Dale Rockow, 32, Osmond ave., and there is a good reason for it.

Eugene, an employee at the Wilmot Dairy, pulled his younger brother from the frigid waters of Antioch lake after they had both fallen through the ice about 10 p.m. Monday.

The two had been ice fishing and were on their way to land when in the fog-bound area they wandered into a spring-fed area where the ice was thin and both fell through.

Eugene spread his arms as he fell and was able to catch solid ice onto which he scrambled after it crumpled under his grasp once or twice.

Then shouting encouragement to his brother, he pulled himself along on the thin ice, actually tearing

Antioch Frosh-Soph Clinch Championship Win from Grant 40-39

The Antioch Freshman-Sophomore basketball team was assured of first place in the Northwest Suburban Conference underclassmen's standing with its 40-39 victory over Grant there Friday night.

The young Braves lost but one game this season while Grant, the only contender and that for a first place tie, has lost three.

The game with Grant was a hard fought one, with neither team getting much chance at the basket. At one time Antioch was 6 points ahead, but Grant closed the gap in the last quarter, although the Bulldogs were never ahead.

In a loose game in which Coach Polley used mostly substitute players the Antioch Frosh-Soph team lost to the McHenry High underclassmen 51 to 47. It was a non-conference game.

Antioch will end its season tomorrow night against Grayslake here. The championship is not at stake.

Basketball Tournament At Salem High Starts

The sub-regional basketball tournament for southeastern Wisconsin high schools will get under way tonight at Salem Central with Burlington and the Falcons playing at 7 p.m. and Kenosha and Lake Geneva at 8:30.

The winners will play Friday night and the losers will play each other in the preliminary.

Kenosha, a much larger school than the others, is said to be the stronger team on paper, but there may be an upset.

The winner of the finals including the consolation game will play in the regional final at Beloit Saturday.

Arthur Trieger Ends 37 Years of Service As Rural Mail Carrier

Arthur Trieger of Grass Lake Rd. made his last trip today as mail carrier on R.F.D. 4 out of Antioch. He ends 37 years of service at the local post office where he started work Dec. 1 1920 after doing substitute carrying.

In retiring from the job as carrier, Trieger has seen many changes throughout the area that he served. A second generation of patrons has grown and the houses are much closer together than they were when he started to make room for the new families.

Only 57 years old, Art isn't thinking of the arm chair or anything like it, but will no doubt be quite active in some other kind of work before long.

Knights of Columbus Set May 4 for Party At Pasadena Gardens

St. Peter's of Antioch Knights of Columbus will hold its annual Ladies' Night dance party Saturday, May 4, at Pasadena Gardens on Rte. 83 north of Antioch. The committee in charge comprises Walter T. Farrell, Albert Fuller, Emil Kubs, and Vincent Stonis, John Horan, grand Knight announced.

The Council has deferred its party for the St. Peter's basketball team until after Lent.

The organization wishing to make financial contributions to the Crusaders' Youth Organization, St. Peter's and Prince of Peace parishes, appointed a committee of Roman B. Vos, Antioch; Ralph Stollenwerk, Lake Villa; and Walter T. Farrell, Fox Lake, to investigate the matter and report.

The shock of the affair seemed to affect Eugene more than Dale, although Dale was in the water at least seven minutes. Dale is employed as a lather.

Wilmot Defeated In Final By Walworth; Had Beat Genoa City

After winning from Genoa City 68 to 55 in the first round of sub-district play at Wilmot last Friday, the Panthers of that village lost to Walworth Saturday night 57 to 51, in the final game.

Wilmot outscored Walworth in the first, second and final quarters and led at the half by three points, but the third quarter was a fatal one. Walworth scored 17 points, nine of them on fouls, and gained a lead that the Panthers couldn't overcome.

Genoa City beat Williams Bay in the consolation game. Walworth will play Brodhead tonight in the district contest at Milton Junction.

Where the Blame Doesn't Belong

A U. S. News & World Report feature article bears the provocative and disturbing title "Is a Buyers' Strike Coming?"

The article says a real strike of that kind is not believed to be imminent—but that sales of some kinds of goods are slowing, and that there is more grumbling over prices among consumers. It also says that "Merchants are encountering resentment from their customers against some of the high prices."

Human nature being what it is, this is probably inevitable. When consumer resentment over inflation flared shortly after World War II, merchants bore the brunt of the attack and in some cases groups actually picketed stores. This attitude, in the vast majority of cases, amounts to placing the blame where it definitely does not belong.

Merchants are not responsible for higher prices, now or in the past, and the profits figures prove it. The food chains, for instance, often earn only a cent of profit on each dollar of sales—a profit so small we'd never notice the difference if it didn't exist at all. Other kinds of stores commonly earn only a few cents out of that sales dollar. All the rest goes to buy supplies, pay wages, rents and taxes, and to meet other unavoidable overhead expense.

Wages have been going up, in some cases sharply, and so have other costs borne by business on both the manufacturing and retailing levels. Merchants have no choice—the increases must be passed along to the consumer.

Warning From the Top

Directly after the President presented his proposed $71.8 billion budget to Congress, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey held an unusual press conference. He said that the budget is "the best we can possibly do at present." Then he added a potent warning—that if public spending is not reduced "We'll have a depression that will curl your hair." He expressed confidence that reductions can be made in the next 18 months.

The Secretary and the other officials concerned with this problem must have real public support—which means, above all, that we must approve and accept economy measures that affect us, and not just the fellow next door.

An Efficient Fuel

A good many people have been led to believe that coal is about through as a furnace or boiler fuel—particularly in new plants and buildings.

That, however, is not the case. In many instances, builders find that coal is still the most efficient and economical fuel available.

As an example, a lock company is building a plant in Illinois. It will be a sizable affair, with 1,000 workers. After exhaustive economic and engineering studies, a decision to install a modern coal-burning boiler plant was reached, and coal will be used exclusively for all heating and process steam requirements.

This coal installation will require a minimum of labor. For all practical purposes it will be a push-button operation, using a completely mechanized coal and ash handling system. It will make possible an estimated annual saving of $53,000 as against other fuels.

Coal plants are being installed in other structures, including new schools, public buildings, and various kinds of factories. Coal's major markets today are power and steel companies. But it still has a growing heating market.

Short End of the Stick

The Advertiser, of Calais, Maine, points out that in many parts of the world socialists are worried because workers prefer jobs in private industry as against jobs in nationalized industry. It cites two examples. The private building industry in Soviet East Germany has been taking the more efficient workers away from state-owned companies. And Bolivia's experiment in government operation of the tin industry failed primarily because of low worker productivity—they worked harder for private owners than they did for the government.

This is not surprising. Workers can bargain with private industry and get improved wages and working conditions. But when government is the boss, it calls the tune as it sees fit, and anything resembling equality of bargaining is impossible.

The moral: The masses of working people always get the short end of the stick under socialism.

The User Should Pay

Few would quarrel with the statement that the person who wants and uses a commodity or service should pay for it—that is, pay enough to cover all the costs of providing it.

Yet there are services—strictly commercial services—for which the user pays only a part of the cost, and another part is made up, through subsidies of one kind or another, by the taxpayers at large. These are services provided by the government. One of them is parcel post.

As of a recent date, it was estimated that since 1926 the parcel post deficit has run to $1.2 billion—and this does not include large indirect costs, which are put at some $43 million a year. And parcel post, remember, operates in direct competition with self-supporting, taxpaying private business—express companies, local cartage concerns, and others. It is this fact that caused the International Teamster magazine to describe parcel post as "a classic example of unnecessary competition with private business."

What can be done? The answer is that parcel post should be forced to adhere to three specific principles that Congress specified when the service was started in 1913—that rates should cover all costs, that there should not be unnecessary competition with private enterprise, and that the service should supplement, not supersede, private carriers.

was intended to prevent the states seeking Federal aid for highway construction, improvement and maintenance of highways and retirement of highway bonds."

The motor club president pointed out that "under this Hayden-Cartwright provision the states of Georgia, New Jersey and Massachusetts were penalized. Maryland and Pennsylvania were warned, and they restored the diverted money to the highway fund."

He said an attempt was made in California in 1956 to have gasoline tax revenue diverted for the purpose of acquiring right-of-way for the new rapid transit system in the San Francisco area, but added:

"The legislative committee to which this measure was referred considered the proposal to have such little merit that it decided not even to report the measure for any further action."

Northwestern University to Receive Grant of $200,000

The Ford Foundation has approved a grant of $200,000 grant to the Northwestern University school of law to expand its program in international legal studies, it was announced Wednesday, Feb. 20, by Harold C. Havighurst, law school dean.

The grant, with interest, will provide an income of $24,000 annually to be spent over a 10-year period for research and education in international law, the comparative study of law, and related fields. Director of the program will be Brunson MacChesney, professor of international law.

A major share of the funds will be used to add a regular faculty member with special competence in comparative law studies, to pay for visiting law professors from other countries, and to support fellowships for foreign lawyers.

Other portions of the grant will be devoted to financing cooperative programs with other American law schools and aiding research of the Northwestern law faculty.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that a tentative budget for the Antioch Township Library for the fiscal year 1958, to be voted on at the annual Town Meeting, April 2nd, 1957, is now open to public inspection at the Antioch Township Library.

Gasoline Tax for Non-Highway Purposes Unfair

The Chicago Motor Club today warned that diversion of Illinois gas taxes, as suggested by the Chicago Transit Authority, could upset the state's highway program.

Said Charles M. Hayes, president of the Motor Club:

"The proposal made in Springfield last week by officials of the CTA for an increase in the gasoline tax for non-highway purposes is not only unfair and unjust but if adopted could jeopardize the road program throughout the state."

Hayes said Federal law provides penalties for diversion. "In 1947," he pointed out, "the Illinois Legislature also spelled out a policy to prohibit such a scheme as that proposed on Feb. 16 by the CTA."

The CTA proposed a subsidy plan which included hiking the state gas tax from 5 to 6 cents a gallon to produce an estimated $26 million a year. Half of this would be allocated directly to the CTA. The other half would be used for highway projects.

But Hayes cited the 1947 statement of policy adopted by the Legislature. He said it "states in effect that highway-user taxes are to be used only for highway purposes or to retire and pay the bonds for highway construction."

The Motor Club president said that other states have been penalized for diverting gas taxes for non-highway purposes. He asserted: "The Federal highway aid law has stipulated that where a state diverts any of its own highway funds to non-road purposes, it shall be subject to having its Federal aid allocation reduced or withheld. The provision—known as the Hayden-Cartwright amendment—was written into the basic Federal aid law in 1934."

Hayes said the Hayden-Cartwright amendment is still in effect. He cited the following opinion given in 1938 by the U. S. attorney general that "this section

Ceresota FLOUR

Cheese dried out? Try rubbing either butter or margarine along the cut edge before wrapping with waxed or foil paper. You'll find this helps keep cheese fresh and moist.

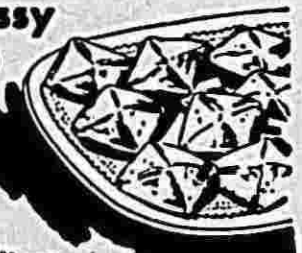

We're often asked why we refuse to use bleaching agents in processing Ceresota flour. "Why wait for the flour to turn white naturally?"—people want to know.

The answer is quite simple: We still process Ceresota the good old-fashioned way because we want it to be NATURALLY FLAVORFUL, NATURALLY WHOLESOME, NATURALLY WHITE. That's why we let Ceresota "rest" after milling—so that you can count on better texture, fuller flavor, and finer appearance in your home baking every time.

With all its UNBLEACHED, natural qualities, Ceresota costs no more than other flours.

For an appetite-awakener that's economical, too—try these "Embassy Prune Folds" which make a dish you'll be proud to serve to your special friends.

Embassy Prune Folds

Ingredients

5 cups Ceresota unbleached flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups milk
2 eggs (beaten)
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 small cakes yeast
(or 2 packages dry active yeast)
1/4 teaspoon mace
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
30 prunes (soaked, cooked 'till soft, drained, pits removed and mashed)
Mix and add to prunes:
4 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Soak milk, add sugar and salt and cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in lukewarm milk. Add 8 cups of flour and mix well. Add egg, mace and lemon rind and beat well. Add melted shortening and remaining flour. Mix. Turn out on floured board and knead. Place in greased bowl, cover, and let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down—let rise again. When light, knead a few times.

Roll dough into 1/2" thick rectangle. Cut into 3" squares. Place a spoonful of filling on each. Fold corners to center, pinch together. Place on greased cookie sheet and cover. Let rise until light; bake in 400° oven for 20-25 minutes.

Lakeside Rebekahs Hold Instruction

Mrs. Harriet Koepke, warden of the Rebekah Assembly of Illinois, conducted a school of instruction for officers and members of Lakeside Rebekah Lodge on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Feb. 20 in the I. O. O. F. hall, 952½ Main st., Antioch. The afternoon session was given entirely to instruction of the ritualistic work of the lodge. A pot luck supper at 6 p. m. was enjoyed by members of the Rebekahs and families. The evening session was the regular stated meeting of Lakeside lodge.

Visitors at the meeting were members from Waukegan, Chicago, Libertyville and Highland Park lodges. Officers of District 3 present were Kay Cameron, president; Mary Jane Martin, secretary; and Hortense Gordon, warden. Mrs. Gordon is a member of Lakeside lodge.

The Rebekah lodge in Antioch does much in the way of relief work and community service, giving assistance to members and their families in times of need and helping on the various fund drives of the community, such as polio, Red Cross, etc. At the present time the Heart Fund campaign is in progress and Carolyn Horan, a member of Lakeside is chairman of the drive.

The next meeting of Lakeside lodge will be held March 6, and will be roll call night. Every member has been contacted by phone or card and asked to attend the meeting. If unable to be present, they will be credited with attendance if they reply by card or phone to the secretary, Clare Horton, tel. 140-R, stating a legitimate reason for not attending. It is hoped that the roll call will be 100 per cent.

The Life You Save . . .
American Mutual's Institute for Safer Living concludes that presently the most fruitful "stop-gap" remedy to reverse the trend of mounting highway tragedies will be more and better law enforcement. They point out that while nearly 41,000 persons were being killed on American highways last year, there was only one traffic patrolman for each 600 miles of paved road, nationwide. You as a motorist can give the traffic officer a helping hand by policing your own driving. Help him to save YOUR life!

Chicago Sportsman Amuses Lions Club With Baseball News

The White Sox under their new manager, Al Lopez should win 10 more games than last year, and the Chicago Cubs' prospects look greater due to the trades they made during the off season, Joe Heinsen, representative of the Wilson Sporting Goods Co., Chicago, told the Antioch Lions club at its dinner meeting Monday at the 19th Hole.

Heinsen, who for the last two years has been a pre-game batting practice catcher for the White Sox, formerly was with the Cubs organization. He entered baseball in 1934 with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The speaker kept his audience well entertained with stories about the famous baseball players of today and yesterday.

Increases of 60 per cent in the number of Illinois licensed hunters and 80 per cent in fishermen have occurred since 1945, according to Director Glen D. Palmer of the Department of Conservation.

This mounting desire for places to fish and hunt can be satisfied only by spending more money, Palmer says. He favors enactment of pending General Assembly bills which would add $1 to the charge for resident hunting and fishing licenses.

THIS LUXURIOUS FULL-SIZED BEAUTY-

lot of "low-priced" jobs!

Open your eyes to its glister—get a tingle from its go—and you'll wonder how this big, nimble-wheeled beauty ever edged its way into the low-price field! Actually you can go a long, long way up the price scale and still not get what the Chieftain offers: In wheelbase, its extra-long 122" span is crowding the biggest; in power, Pontiac's deep-chested 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8 is getting rave write-ups by experts who have driven 'em all! And when it comes to ride, no other car can hold a candle to the new ideas that went into Pontiac's soothin', smooth Level-Line Ride! Yet, with all this, a full-sized Chieftain six-passenger sedan actually costs less than 30 models of the low-price three. Come in for a turn at the wheel and a look at the price tag . . . and discover how easy it is to excite your pride and calm your budget—all at the same time!

Central High Completes $280,000 Addition; Enrollment Next Fall to Double That of 1952

Central High School at Paddock Lake, Wis., which has been busily engaged in construction except during 1954, has completed the $280,000 addition. Lawrence Monberg and Associates of Kenosha was the architect and Frank Zoubek Construction Company, the general contractor.

The present addition consists of additional lavatory facilities, four regular classrooms, a new industrial shop and classroom, a complete new music department of choral and instrumental set-up, a bus maintenance garage, and a sewing classroom. In addition, the hot lunch department and the shower rooms were also enlarged. Perhaps one of the most striking features of the building is the outer lobby and the main entrance. Further landscaping will be done this spring.

Central's enrollment has grown from 238 in 1952-1953 to more than 450 at present. Undoubtedly it will reach 500 next fall. What influence the Richard Borg Jet Base will have on the community and the enrollment is yet to be seen. The bulk of the government's $26 million air base will be carved from the Central School district with the southern boundary about two miles from the school. Federal aids will be forthcoming to the school district according to legislative regulations.

The school offers a well balanced curriculum in vocational courses, general education and college preparation. The faculty consists of 23 in contrast to 11 the first year of operation. The administrators are Vernon O. Horne, vice-principal and vocational agriculture, and Allen H. Erickson, principal. The present board of education consists of a member from each township: Bryant B. Benson, director, Bristol; Richard F. Hartnell, clerk, Salem; Floyd R. Holloway, treasurer, Paris; Peter R. Fox, Brighton; Rodell G. Schenning, Wheatland.

In addition to the recent building expansion, the residents of the district voted in a multiple lighting system which enables night football, baseball and track or other activities. The spacious gymnasium and the school's facilities afford the school to again conduct the sub-regional basketball tournament on February 28 and March 1.

The play, directed by Mrs. Julia Gordon Weiser, will take place at the Little Theater of the Waukegan Township High School. Tickets, may be purchased at the door or by phoning Ontario 2-5853.

Parents Invited

Parents of mentally handicapped children in this area who are interested in getting their youngsters enrolled in classes are invited to attend monthly meetings of the Retarded Children's Educational Society which are held on the second Monday of each month. The next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. March 11 in the Zion Auditorium where the Parkside School for retarded children holds classes. Mailing address of the society is P. O. Box 158, Waukegan, Illinois.

A colored film, showing retarded children who attend the society's schools in their class routine, may be had upon request, at no charge by writing or phoning Mrs. Paul Thiele, Beach Road, Waukegan (On 2-2331). A speaker from the organization will accompany the film to explain the program and answer questions.

Preparation for Drive For Red Cross Fund Moves Satisfactorily

Preparation for the Red Cross solicitation for Antioch and vicinity is progressing satisfactorily with Mrs. J. W. Kopriva serving as chairman and John L. Horan, co-chairman.

Mrs. Kopriva has been working the village for workers and Mr. Horan has the rural section checking captains to look after solicitation of sub-divisions in groups and listed as zones from "A" to "L", covering all of the township.

A meeting will be held on Monday, at the Rescue Squad station, when captains and solicitors will gather for a general briefing on all of the phases of red cross activities.

Any assistance offered by those living in the various sub-divisions in the township of Antioch would be more than welcomed either by Mrs. Kopriva or Mr. Horan.

We may not have minute men today, but we do have lots of seconds.

Antioch Beats Grant.....

near the end of the first quarter had a 22-4 lead over the visitors. It looked like a rout, but the Warriors began clicking and the quarter ended 24-10.

The score at half time was 33-21, and 52-39 going into the fourth quarter.

Then McHenry started a full-court press which was successful and matters got worse for the Sequoits when Jerry Huml fouled out. The Warriors began closing the gap.

With 14 seconds to go the score stood 64-62, Antioch. Then Wayne Herbst clinched the victory with two free throws.

Dick Behrens was high man for Antioch with 18 points while Herbst, Art Hanke, and Huml added 15, 14, 12, respectively.

University of Illinois Retail Food Markets

Chicago—Beef, lamb and poultry will continue in consumer value position at mostly steady prices while pork bobbles around, taking a slight jump for fresh and halting declines on cured items this week, to refute published government reports that "pork items are particularly low priced."

In fact, beef and pork moved in opposite directions at wholesale last week, as meat packers observed the short holiday work week. Cattle continued to arrive in heavy volume, some 5000 more head during the short week as compared to the previous full work week. This factor augmented by increased numbers of cattle in pipelines assures low-priced beef for weeks to come. Hog arrivals were extremely light, and in effect throws the pork calendar behind at least two full weeks. Prices had been slipping until the sharp reversal set in at wholesale.

The market also is watching butter prices and movement since the government changed its procurement procedure (largely by-passing the Chicago Mercantile Exchange) to purchase direct from producers. This move, it is felt, will channel more top-score butter to government, for school lunch, welfare, export, and other uses, leaving lower scores for modest consumption.

Antioch, Ill.

Trade predicts increased consumer costs. This should not reflect at retail for some time.

The University of Illinois consumer service survey of metropolitan area food outlets for the week ending March 2 pegs these values: Beef—steaks, chuck and shoulder round roasts, economy cuts; poultry—stewing hens, turkey, capons, large eggs; produce—citrus fruits, lettuce, carrots, sweetcorn, broccoli, brussels sprouts, and potatoes; canned foods—beets, corn, tomato and grapefruit juice, pears and peaches. Expect continued bargains in shortening and possibly slight decline in coffee during the next few weeks.

Consensus prices reflected in the U. of I. survey include:

Beef—Unchanged from last week for major items: steaks—sirloin 69-79c, porterhouse 79-89c, round 49-55c; roasts—blade cut 29-35c (off 4c), round bone 49-55c, standing rib 49-59c, rump 79-89c. Economy cuts are slightly lower, short ribs typically 17c, shoulder round roasts 39c, for instance.

Pork—Fresh items jumped from 2 to 10c, loin end roasts quoting 45-49c, rib end 35-39c, center chops 69-79c, fresh Boston 43-49c. Cured items hold steady, smoked whole ham 53-55c; picnic 35-39c, smoked Boston 59-69c. Bacon jumped 2c to 59-67c for best.

Veal—Declining slightly at wholesale but insufficient to influence retail.

Lamb—Value opportunities in leg roasts at 55-59c, shoulder roasts remaining cheap at 29-33c.

Poultry—Continuing values in stewing hens at 33-39c, turkeys dropping 4c to 45c, and fryers quoting widely but at a lower 35-45c. Spot values are noted for capons and roasters.

Dairy—Eggs still are low priced, with better values in larger sizes, such as 47-49c for grade A large whites. Butter quotes as low as

Of course

get along without a dryer

..but why - when ELECTRIC dryers cost so little, are fume-free, fast and thrifty!

Just 6¢ will dry
a big load electrically!

One of the wonderful things about having an electric dryer is that your clothes come out as fluffy and sweet-smelling as if you'd had them in the sun all day.

No musty basement odor. No fumes. Just clean, dry, radiant heat—like the sun gives.

All electric dryers are fully automatic (a good deal more dependable than the sun). Fast, too. You can dry a load of cottons in 25 to 30 minutes—and for only 6¢ worth of electricity!

You'll notice that all the "no vent" dryers are electric. Heat, lint and moisture just disappear down the drain. Your laundry area stays clean, dry and comfortable.

Why not see your electric appliance dealer?

Public Service Company

Big Saving—ask your dealer about our Share-the-Cost Installation Plan. It's the low-cost way to get the modern 100-amp home wiring you need for today's electric living appliances. The Plan is available to qualified home owners on terms up to 2 years.

If you own an electric range, you save up to $25 on a new dryer! In fact if you have any 240-volt appliance your home probably has modern wiring already. This means the complete, installed price of your new electric dryer will be less than any other kind.

HEALTH TALK

Try Laughing

"Laugh it off" is a slang expression that, aptly enough, contains excellent advice. Laughter is a tonic and great good is accomplished with it, according to the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society in Health Talk.

Not only does laughter suggest happiness, but it evokes goodwill. It creates conviviality and promotes friendship. It is a stimulus to exercise for it puts into play many muscles that are ordinarily not active. Laughter reduces nerve tension and contributes to relaxation of the mind and body. It stimulates circulation.

How does a laugh begin? Happy laughter is involuntary. An anecdote, an amusing situation or gladness on seeing a friend all evoke thoughts of laughter. Starting in the brain, the thoughts set up the action. The diaphragm moves up and down, sending air outward to stimulate the larynx where sounds are produced in the form of chuckles.

Possibly because the heart is the main and life-giving organ of the body explains the derivation of the term "a good hearty laugh." And certainly laughing is one infectious agent for which immunization is not recommended. Just hearing a person laugh, or seeing the expression of a face in laughter, inspires imitation, perhaps not audibly but certainly with a smile.

There are different types of laughter which should be avoided. The derisive laugh, usually with an expression of contempt, does not convey happiness. It suggests unpleasantness in the nature of the person who produces it and creates unhappiness in the listener.

Then there is the hysterical laugh. This is so unpleasant that again the listener has no desire to imitate. This is also true of the "giggle."

Some people do not laugh readily, while some only smile or emit a soft chuckle. But the happiness is revealed in the expression. And happiness is so essential to our lives.

Happy laughter is a joy to hear. It is mirth provoking and conducive to cheerfulness. With the stress and strain of modern living and the keyed up pitch of competition, our spirits become burdened. This is when we can try laughing. Try it in the home and office. Try it on your way to work. And try it when you're alone.

Don't strain though. The forced laugh is just plain "phony." And a face holding a steady grinning expression would be monotonous.

Keep your disposition blythe and gay, so when the occasion presents itself you can laugh happily. You'll help yourself and inspire happiness in those about you. And remember if you're the type that doesn't laugh easily, smile instead. A warm, happy and sincere smile produces the same effect. Remember too, that good health and happiness go together. So when you can, try laughing.

Double success story — the car, the man

What is behind the sensational success of Lincoln, fastest growing fine car in America? Perhaps it is this: that with a certain kind of man, the preferred mark of success is never the most obvious, the most common symbol. He chooses Lincoln for this and other reasons: for distinguished new beauty that sweeps back in sheer, clean lines—from Quadra-Lite Grille to out-thrust rear blades. For performance that challenges them all, with the mightiest V-8 engine in Lincoln history and its new, quick-acting Turbodriven Transmission. For comfort—from Lincoln's spacious elegance and road-smoothing Hydro-Cushioned Ride. For convenience, too—even the door locks and ventilation windows are electric! See this most uncommon fine car today at our showroom. Unmistakably the finest in the fine car field.

Letter from Tenth District American Legion Endorses Present Red Cross Fund Campaign

Antioch Red Cross Drive workers were encouraged this week by a letter from Gordon W. Thomas, tenth district commander of the American Legion, to Rear Admiral Raymond E. Edwards, chairman of the Lake County chapter.

The letter said:
Dear Admiral Edwards:
"It was brought to the attention of our Tenth District Council of the American Legion by Past District Commander, William R. Sigler, that the Lake County chapter of the American Red Cross is presently in the midst of its 1957 annual fund-raising campaign. Inasmuch as our district council is composed of representatives of the 6000 Legionnaires belonging to their respective local posts throughout the 26 communities of Lake County, it is only natural that these veterans of military and naval service during the world wars would be concerned for the success of this American Red Cross drive and for the continued service of our Lake County chapter to the less fortunate veterans and the distressed citizens of our community."

"No single group of local citizens could offer more constructive criticism or would be better qualified to evaluate the fine work over the years of The American Red Cross, than are the veterans who have witnessed your organization in operation throughout the World during war-time. We salute your great organization for the diligent manner in which you have tackled the intricate problems of emergency relief at the request of your Government, both during times of war or peace."

"Official action was taken by the Tenth District Council at its monthly meeting held in Highland Park on Feb. 15, whereby our echelon of the American Legion did wholeheartedly and unanimously endorse the continuous activities of the Lake County Chapter, thereupon urging all citizens (veterans and civilians alike) to generously support the 1957 Fund-Raising Campaign of that Chapter with their contributions of both money and effort."

Girl Scouts Prepare To Celebrate Double Anniversary in March

The Girl Scout family of more than two and a half million men, women, and girls is preparing to observe a double anniversary during forthcoming Girl Scout Week, March 10-16.

It will be their own 45th Birthday on March 12, and the Robert-Baden-Powell Centenary for the man who started the idea of scouting for boys while he was still an officer in the British Army. Later he retired from the Army to devote his full time to his new youth movement. It was during one of his first big Scout rallies in London when he noticed so many girls attending in makeshift Boy Scout uniforms that he decided to launch a similar organization for girls.

A few years later, Juliette Gordon Low of Savannah, Ga., then living in Scotland, became interested in his Girl Guides, and in 1912 she returned to the U.S. to organize and become the founder of the Girl Scouts.

Juliette Low traveled all over the U.S. selling Girl Scouting to others, and by the end of 1915 the organization boasted a membership of 5000. By the end of 1918 the Girl Scouts had gained recognition for their services during the First World War and membership numbered 34,081. By the end of 1952, 40 years after its founding, there were 1,931,253 Girl Scouts in the U.S.

Nearing the three million mark today, a call is going out all over for more adult volunteer and professional workers. It is fast becoming one of America's favorite family affairs; mothers, dads, aunts and uncles everywhere are pitching in to help provide better scouting for more girls.

Many readers may become a part of the world's largest organization of its kind either as a leader, co-leader, troop committee member, program consultant, trainer, public relations aids, or as a member of one of the various council committees.

For further information write or call the Lakeside Girl Scout Council President, Mrs. Arthur A. Storch, Rt. 21 Lake Villa, Ill., Elliot 6-2161. There is no obligation.

To Attend Illinae Dinner
Local members of the Chicago Illinae Club will attend the annual Founders' Day luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the Drake hotel. Patricia Clafford, Chicago, will be the speaker giving an original personality talk stressing inner charm, potential power, and the secrets for success and happiness.

A member of the Posts Forum, Mrs. Clafford is also a member of the National League of American Pen Women, Iota Sigma Epsilon sorority, Zonta International, and is on the board of the Chicago National Society of Arts and Letters.
